

Daniel E. Buckley

528 South Church Street APT 1N
Decatur, IL 62522
(217) 691-6170 (cell) — (217) 422-2421 (apt)
dbuckley@millikin.edu

Objective: To obtain a career working as an independent composer on film and other projects.

Education: B.M. Music Business: Millikin University, Decatur, IL
Dean's List, 2007-2008. Cumulative GPA: 3.3

Relevant Courses:

- MT 111-212 Music Theory I-II
- MT 201 Beginning Composition
- MT 302 Intermediate Composition
- MT 400 Advanced Composition
- MT 403 Form and Analysis
- MT 404 Song cycle analysis
- MC 104 Intro to the Recording Studio
- MC 201-201 Studio Techniques I-II
- MC 101 Intro to the music industry
- MC 301 Intro to midi
- MC 312 Publishing and Copyright
- MC 450 Music Business Capstone

Software Competencies: Finale notation; Garage Band; Cubase Recording software; Cool Edit pro recording software; Digital Performer; Microsoft office.

Employment History:

Millikin University, Decatur, IL

- Recital Recording Crew Fall 2007-Spring 2010
Duties include: recording student and faculty recitals on- and off-campus, using Tascam live recording equipment; setting up microphones; checking recording levels; burning CD-ROMs; accommodating specific instructions from performers.
- Assistant D.J., WJMU-FM 89.5 Radio Fall 2006-Fall 2008
Duties include: Organizing playlists; preparing and recording PSAs and radio promotions; co-hosting on-air radio programs; answering play requests (by phone).
- Independent not for profit actor in student video production projects
Duties include: acting in students' video assignments, original music composition, recording voice over for student documentaries and other video assignments, assisting in video editing using Avid and Final Cut Pro 6.

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST